NATIONAL STUDENT LOAN DATA SYSTEM (NSLDS)

Prospective students and/or parents that enter into an agreement regarding Title IV loans are advised that the loan information is submitted to the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS), and is accessible by guaranty agencies, various lenders, and institutions determined to be authorized to utilize the data system.

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) is the U.S. Department of Education's central database for student aid. The NSLDS acquires its information from institutions, guaranty agencies, the Direct Loan program, and other Department of Education programs.

The NSLDS student access provides a centralized, integrated view of the Title IV loans and grants so that recipients of Title IV Aid can access and inquire about their Title IV loans and/or grant information. Students and/or parents can access their personal loan and grant information by going to the following website: <http://www.nsls.ed.gov>.
